

2ND NOVEMBER TRANSFIGURATION DAY CELEBRATION

The Church of Haile Selassie I invite the Rastafarian community and all those who love justice and hate aggression to our Transfiguration Day Service and Celebration. This is a Holy Day and represents the Transfiguration of Rastafari to Haile Selassie I, 'Might of the Trinity' fulfilling Rev5:5. The day also represents when Rastafari was acclaimed "Negus Nagast" King of Kings, Isaiah 43:15.

This day will be celebrated on Monday, 2nd November 2015 and will start with a short prayer service at 12noon. Celebration will commence with Rastafarian music, refreshments, a family meal and presentations. The event will close at 5.00pm with a short prayer of thanksgiving and blessing by the Priest in charge.

The event will take place at Allenby House, 1A Temple Rd, Cricklewood NW2 6PJ (Opposite from Matalan, and just round the corner from The Heritage Inn). Nearest train station: Cricklewood. Buses: 32, 245, 266, 332.

Tel No: 07960 835 069. Email. Himchurch@hotmail.co.uk

