The Crown Council of Ethiopia

Royal Function

The Crown Council of Ethiopia is the Constitutional Body which advises the reigning Emperors of Ethiopia and, during an interregnum (such as now), actually acts on behalf of the Crown. The Council members are initially appointed by an Emperor, and subsequently (during an interregnum) sustained in their posts or replaced under the direction of the President of the Council.

The current role of the Monarchy in preserving Ethiopia's unity…

True leadership is all about the inspiration of people to see the vision of what greatness is possible within them and within their own broad communities, and then causing the energies, talents and willpower of those people to be focused toward achieving that greatness.

Imperial Ethiopian World Federation (I.E.W.F.)

To promote love and good-will among Ethiopians at home and abroad and thereby maintain the integrity and sovereignty of Ethiopia; to disseminate the ancient Ethiopian culture among its members, to correct abuses, relieve oppression and carve for ourselves, and our posterity, a destiny comparable with our idea of perfect manhood and God's purpose in creating us; that we may not only save ourselves from annihilation, but carve for ourselves a place in the Sun; in this endeavor, we are determine to seek peace and pursue it, for it is the will of God for man.

- To promote and pursue happiness; for it is the goal of human life and endeavor.
- To usher in the teaching and practice of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.
- To promote and stimulate interest among its members in world affairs, and to cultivate a spirit of international goodwill and comity.
- To promote friendly interest among its members to develop a fraternal spirit among them, and to inculcate in its members the desire to render voluntary aid and assistance to one another at all times.
